

Ink Technician mixes, matches, and creates inks and pigments, as well as specializes in printing materials for printing presses and other ink uses.

Machine Operator duties include adhering to designs, keeping production schedules, and following directions. Skilled in setting up machines ahead of production cycles and controlling settings as needed and with minimal supervision.

Rosalio Macabidang

Phone:
+971 567348546

E-Mail:
macabidangrosalio5@gmail.com

Skill Highlights

- Precise in all work-related assignments
- Flexible team player with the demonstrated capacity to learn quickly and apply that knowledge efficiently.
- Self-motivated, initiative with high level of energy
- Adaptability and ability to work under pressure situation.

Education

- Oquendo National High School
1997-2001
- Cabatuan Elementary School
1990-1997

Language

Tagalog and English

Visa Status: Tourist Visa

Experience

July 2015 – January 2024

Kentucky MFG. Corporation
Caloocan City, Philippines
Machine Operator/Cutter

- Operate machinery to print designs onto textile products.
- Ensuring the smooth and efficient running of machines and carrying out routine maintenance.
- Setting up the equipment, loading and operating the machines, and making sure they function at their best.
- Placing patterns on top of layers of fabric and cut fabric following patterns, using electric cutters with computer numerically controlled cutting devices.

May 05, 2003- September 2010

Mega Pack Container Corporation
Valenzuela, Philippines
Ink Technician/Color Matcher

- Prepare ink that has been color matched requested by the Planning department for prescheduled jobs.
- Create color swatch, LSD (Light, standard, Dark) uses as reference for color matching for mass production.
- Draw down ink and compare with master file to get the viscosity and compare with the standard.
- Responsible in adjusting the color of the Ink in the flexo machine if color variation is occurred to conform to the standard color from the standard color swatch.

Machine operator

- Cleaning of all necessary equipment before going to production of ink due to long hour of storage to avoid contamination.
- Request the formula from the chemist to start the production of ink, the base color inks, weigh and labelled once production is done.